Appeal No.33/ICPB/2006
June 16, 2006

In the matter of Right to Information Act, 2005 – Section 19.

Appellant : Shri J.B. Sharma, New Delhi.
Public Authority: Indian Council of Medical Research, New Delhi.
 Dr. K. Sathyanarayan, Sr. DDG – CPIO.

FACTS

By an application dated 21.2.2006 to the CPIO, ICMR, the appellant sought for the following information :

1. Copies of the orders issued by ICMR to Dr. N.K. Ganguly allowing retention of lien by him from 12.3.98 to 30.11.2003 on his previous post at PGI Chandigarh.
2. Copy of the order of re-employment of Dr. N.K. Ganguly on the post of DG ICMR from 1.12.2003 to 11.11.2006 issued by ICMR.

2. By a communication dated 20.3.2006, the PIO furnished photocopies of all the orders (five) sought for by the appellant/ complainant. The appellant has now filed this ‘application under RTI Act’ complaining that documents relating to re-employment of Dr. N.K. Ganguly as DG from 1.12.2003 has not been provided and the documents provided by CPIO are irrelevant and misleading and accordingly the appellant has sought for necessary action.

3. The complainant himself has enclosed with the present appeal/ complaint, copies of the orders sought for by him and furnished by CPIO. Having sought only for the copies of the orders and having received them, now his complaint is that he has not received documents relating to re-employment. In other words, he is complaining that the CPIO has not furnished information which the appellant himself had not sought for in his application to CPIO. Thus I find that this appeal/complaint is frivolous and deserves to be dismissed and accordingly I do so.

4. Let a copy of this decision be sent to appellant and CPIO.
